Dear Javier Peralta:

Repwest Insurance Company is the claim handler for U-Haul International. Our investigation shows that damages occurred to the U-Haul equipment while on rental to you, the optional collision damage waiver known as "Safemove" or "Safetow" was not purchased.

You are responsible for the damages that were done to the equipment at this time.

If you had personal automobile collision coverage at the time and would like to submit a claim for the U-Haul damages please provide us the information below. Please note that not all insurance carriers have coverage for U-Haul trucks/trailers.

If sending payment directly, please forward your check or money order to the address above or visit <https://claims.uhaul.com/payment.aspx> to pay by credit card. Please note our claim number on your payment to ensure proper credit. Your prompt attention to this matter is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Corina Ramirez
